DECEMBER HYMN BOOK - CH4

FROM THE MINISTER     26 November
2008

Dear Friends

Christmas Services

Once again Christmas is almost upon us and I am looking forward to our Christmas Services. It seems to me that we have a wonderful opportunity to increase the numbers who will attend our worship over the festive period. Coming so soon after our successful Back to Church Sunday, I am sure many of you will recall the interest shown that day and can think of people to whom you can go back with an invitation to attend a Christmas Service. You did not let me down for the B2CS day, so let us see if we can fill the church with the sound of Christmas praise.

On the last Sunday of the year we have something special happening. To mark the last Sunday that we shall have Rosemary Lund as a regular organist, I have asked if the choir could sing us through the Christian year. Instead of yet another Christmas sermon, those coming to the church on the 28th will be able to listen to all the anthems sung by the choir this year. I personally have felt that Rosemary's selection for the choir this year has resulted in the best selection that we have had over a twelve month period and so well worth hearing again. If you missed any of them first time round, then here is a wonderful opportunity to catch up

Churchyard

Immediately after a recent burial I shared with one of the mourners, Councillor Stephen Smith, my long time concern about the state of the churchyard pathways. The use of heavy graveyard machinery combined with inclement weather can leave the paths rather muddy and on that particular day it was the worst I had seen. I told Councillor Smith I would copy to him a letter I intended to send to the Council but before I did so he sent me a copy of an exchange of correspondence he had had with the appropriate council official. I am happy to report that we have been given an assurance that steps will be taken to improve the situation.

Your friend and minister

CHRISTMAS IN CRUDEN CHURCH

There will be a CHRISTINGLE SERVICE at the Old Church at 4 pm on Sunday 14 December. This service, where everyone present receives a Christingle (an orange with a candle) is particularly suitable for children to come to.

The children of the Junior Church will be giving their perspective on the Nativity story at the family service on the 21st. After the service, our annual CHRISTMAS BRUNCH will be served in the Hall.

The Old Church will be open at 11:10 pm (and not before!) on Christmas Eve for the WATCHNIGHT SERVICE and as soon as enough people are in the church, carol singing will begin. The service will start around 11.30 pm, finishing at about 12.10 am.

The CHRISTMAS DAY SERVICE will be held in the Old Church at 10.00 am. Children coming are invited to bring along one of their Christmas presents.

THINKING OF OTHERS

At the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services there will be an opportunity to make an offering which the Kirk Session has decided this year should go to support Erskine Hospital which cares for disabled servicemen.

CRUDEN GOOD NEWS

The Presbytery of Buchan asked all its congregations to complete a short questionnaire outlining the congregation's Good News. The intention is to circulate the Good News to provide mutual encouragement and a sharing of ideas. At its November meeting, this is what Cruden Kirk Session agreed to send to the Presbytery.

What is the most encouraging thing that is happening in your congregation just now?

1. Our Back to Church Sunday had TWICE the usual turnout with a few new people showing continuing interest making all the work involved so worthwhile. It is good to know that we are attracting more people on a Sunday morning.
2. A renewed enthusiasm, seen, for example, in our participation at the National Gathering at Ingliston, seems to exist throughout the congregation. We have an enthusiastic, if small, Junior Church and an active Social Committee encouraging fellowship throughout the congregation.
3. A piloted Adult Sunday School was successful and has continued with a most encouraging attendance enjoying a range of different subjects and varied presentations.
4. Members have decided to organise a proposed pilgrimage to Iona to follow up the 2007 trip to the Holy Land.

What new developments have you seen recently?

1. Despite, the loss of our Missionary Partners, we continue to have a commitment to support the work of the Churches in Malawi.
2. We now have a church website about which positive comments have been made.
3. The closure of a church building now means that we can consolidate all our worship and activities in one church centre.

What are the biggest challenges facing your congregation at this time?

1. Maintaining and expanding on the outcome of Back to Church Sunday.
2. Ongoing struggle to encourage younger families.

IS THIS WHAT YOU WOULD HAVE SAID?

WATCH and TALK GROUP 13th November

Our DVD this month was entitled "Inside the Saudi Kingdom" broadcast on BBC2. Prince Saud bin Abdul Mohsen, a nephew of the King of Saudi Arabia, made the unusual decision to allow the documentary to be filmed in an attempt to explain to the Western World that, although the people of Saudi Arabia live a very different life from most of us, their aims are pretty much the same, just being approached from a different angle.

It is obvious that women are still very much the underdogs. There is very little they can do without first getting permission from either their guardian or father. A good percentage of them still remain covered from head to foot in black: some have a slit for the eyes, some have not. However, it is quite apparent the women do not see themselves as being oppressed, for them it is a way of life with which they have been brought up. Changes may come through the young women who have access to some rather outspoken TV programmes and also to the Internet. Perhaps there is an Emily Pankhurst among them ready to fight in their corner. The Prince stated that a woman's place in society has been determined by the teachings in the Quran and who can argue with that?

It seems, from what the Prince said, that democracy should be allowed to evolve in Saudi Arabia as it has in other parts of the world and not be forced upon them by others. Saudi Arabia wants to be involved with the scientific and technological advances in the rest of the world but has no wish to advance too quickly in any other way.

It was a very interesting DVD and goes a long way to helping the outside world understand Saudi Arabia, its customs and beliefs. As governor of the province of Hail, we can only assume the Prince was only speaking on behalf of his own region.

The next Meeting will be on Monday 12 January 2009 at the home of Mrs Marilyn Samways, Cruden Bay at 7.30 pm. All welcome.

CHURCH QUIZ

A Quiz organised by the Social Committee took place in Cruden Bay Clubhouse on 31 October when "11 tables" took part. The Question Master was Jon Roberts, chef at the Club House who was ably assisted by Rosemary Pittendrigh, while the winners were Eddie and Lindsay Savage and their friends. An amazing £212 was raised for Church funds. Thanks are expressed to all who supported the event.

BLYTHSWOOD SHOE- BOX APPEAL

Despite the rising cost of living, we managed to collect 77 Christmas boxes for the Blythswood Charity. Sincere thanks to everyone who made the effort to make this possible and also thanks to those who donated acceptable items and money. A lot of work went into collecting and filling the boxes this year and the team would like to express their thanks to all concerned, the team being Jean Beedie, Annette Garden, Betty Forrester and myself.

Congregational walks

New Pitsligo      Sunday 16 November

The walking group was welcomed to New Pitsligo by a shower of rain but it did not last long so we set off from the square on a three mile walk heading north along High Street till the houses finished on the right. Taking a track to the right called Low Road it took us to the Banff/Fraserburgh road where we turned left to the Broad Milestone and back to New Pitsligo. Turning up Church Street we admired a bubble car licensed ready for the road. At the top of the street we turned left into Widdy Brae, a tarred path through woodlands and over the Benburn along School Street and back to the cars.

We then went to the Willows Animal Sanctuary where we had some refreshment, looked at pictures and items in the gift shop and then went out to see the horses, ponies, donkeys, sheep, goats, cows pigs, cats, rabbits, poultry and reptiles. After petting as many as we could, we set off home having had quite a good day.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is usually observed between 18 and 25 January. As we did two years ago, we are looking for people to observe it – on their own. A pamphlet of prayers and reflections, with the theme “RECONCILE YOUR PEOPLE”, is available to anyone who would like privately to work their way through these eight days guided by the leaflet. The headings for each day are:

Day 1 - Face to Face with Difference

Day 2 - Face to Face with Violence

Day 3 - Face to Face with Poverty

Day 4 - Face to Face with Creation

Day 5 - Face to Face with Prejudice

Day 6 - Face to Face with Pain

Day 7 - Face to Face with Dialogue

Day 8 - Face to Face with Hope

If you would like to do this sometime around the last fortnight of January (it won't matter if it is not over 8 consecutive days) please let the Minister know and he will pass on the leaflet. If enough people take up this opportunity, then there will be an invitation to come together for one evening at the very end of the month. If you are interested, please get in touch right away.

Morning Prayer

O God, Lord of all good life, help me to use today well.

Help me to use today:

To know you a little better;

To do my work a little more diligently;

To serve my fellow men a little more lovingly;

To make myself, by your help, a little more like Jesus.

*Help me make today a day of progress in my life,
and to become a little more like what you want me to be.*

This I ask for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Twelve Days Of Christmas

These are the replies received by the young man from his true love, when he sent her the gifts of the 12 days of Christmas:

December 26:

Dearest Bill: I went to the door today and the postman delivered a partridge in a pear tree. What a wonderful thoughtful gift! I couldn't have been more surprised. With deepest Love and Devotion, Sarah

December 27:

Dearest Bill: Today the postman brought your most wonderful gift. Just imagine - two turtledoves! I'm delighted at your very sweet gift. They are just adorable. I will have to get a cage for them. With deepest Love, Sarah

December 28:

Dearest Bill: Oh! Your third gift arrived! You really went too far, I think. I don't deserve such generosity - three French hens. They are just lovely, but I must protest - you've been way too kind. Love, Sarah

December 29:

Dearest Bill: Today the postman delivered four calling birds. Now, really, they're quite nice, but now I have 10 birds and nowhere to put any more... so please, no more birds!! But, thanks. Affectionately, Sarah

December 30:

Dearest Bill: What a surprise! Another present... and not a bird this time! Wow! Today the postman delivered five golden rings, one for each finger. You're just too extravagant, but I love it! Frankly, all those birds squawking were beginning to get on my nerves, but the rings are wonderful ...and so quiet!! All my love, Sarah

December 31:

Dear Bill: When I opened the door there were actually six geese a-laying on my front steps. So you're back to the birds again, huh? Those geese are huge! And it was bird poop that they were laying... complete with a large count of salmonella bacteria. Where will I ever keep them? The neighbours are complaining. The police came by with a formal complaint, and I can't sleep through all the racket. I guess I have my own noise-makers for the New Year's Eve celebration tonight. Please stop. NO MORE BIRDS!! Cordially, Sarah

January 1:

Bill; Happy New Year ...to some people. It hasn't been so happy with me. What's with you and those dumb birds? Seven swans a-swimming. What kind of practical joke is this? There's bird guano all over the house and they never stop squawking. I could not sleep all night and I'm a nervous wreck. You have gone too far, bird brain. STOP SENDING BIRDS!! NO MORE BIRDS!! GOT IT?

Sincerely, Sarah

January 2:

OK, WISE GUY: I think I prefer the birds over this. What am I going to do with eight maids a-milking? It's not enough with all those birds and eight maids a-milking, but they had to bring their cows. Have you ever smelled a yard full of cow pats? There are piles all over the lawn, and I can't move in my own house. Leave me alone. NO MORE OF YOUR "GIFTS". Sarah

January 3:

Hey, Vacuum-for-a-Brain: What are you? Some kind of freak? Now there's nine ladies dancing... right in the smelly you-know-what and tracking it all over my house. The way they've been bickering with the milk maids, I hesitate to even call them ladies. You've got it coming, chum! Sarah Truelove

January 4:

You rotten piece of scum!!!! What's with the ten lords a-leaping? I have threatened to break their legs so they can never leap again. All 23 of the birds are dead. They've been trampled to death by the leapers, the dancers, and the cows. At least, I don't have to worry about them any more. However, the cows are mooing all night because they have diarrhoea. My living room is a sewer! The County Council has summonsed me to explain why my house shouldn't be condemned. I'm filing a complaint to the police about you! ONE WHO MEANS IT!!!

January 5:

Listen, Gormless: Now there's eleven pipers piping. And they never stop piping... except when they're chasing those maids or dancing girls. The cows are getting very upset and sound worse than the birds ever did. What am I going to do? There is a petition going around to evict me from the neighbourhood. I hope you're satisfied, you rotten, vicious swine. Your sworn enemy, Sarah Truelove

January 6:

Dear Sir: This is to acknowledge your latest gift of twelve drummers drumming which you have seen fit to inflict on our client, Miss Sarah Truelove. The damage, of course, was total. She was found beating her head against the wall to the beat of the twelve drums. If you should attempt to reach Miss Truelove at Happy Glen Home for the Bewildered, the attendants have instructions to shoot you on sight. With this letter please find attached a warrant for your arrest.

Yours faithfully,

STATEMENT ON TRANSPORT TO CHURCH EVENTS

The Kirk Session has once again given full consideration to its desire to assist people in getting to church on Sundays or for any midweek church events.

- We want people to feel free to ask for transport to be arranged.
- We acknowledge that some people would like to be able to make use of transport without having to arrange it in advance.
- However it would not be cost effective to hire a bus. We must rely on volunteers driving their own cars.
- This means that we have no choice but to say that the only way we can assist people is if they ask for a lift as and when they need one.
- We would encourage those without their own transport to seek to make their own arrangements. However, if that is not feasible, we would encourage people to phone one of our transport conveners – currently Sandy Beedie 841370 or Rosemary Pittendrigh 812220.
They will do their best to put in place an arrangement that will suit both the person requiring a lift and those willing to offer a lift.
- We believe that by offering this facility, no one should feel they are deprived of an opportunity to attend a church event. To put it another way, it would be difficult therefore for anyone to use lack of transport as an excuse for not attending.
